Thoughts from Don Zacharia & Steve Wallace

Hello Los Angeles.

A long, long, long, time ago I went to Los Angeles for the first time. I was discharged from the Army in Fort Lewis, Washington, and my young wife and I, in a snazzy 1952 red Ford convertible, took a very slow drive from Tacoma, Washington to Los Angeles. I liked Los Angeles then, and I still like it.

We stayed in LA for about three weeks, and I wanted to stay longer. I had a couple of bucks from my discharge, and I suggested we live in LA for a year or two, and see where it takes us. In those early days I thought I had some talent as a writer, and television was in its infancy.

Life has its own direction, though, and it never happened. We left Los Angeles heading east, stopped in Las Vegas where I lost all my money, and arrived in New York stone broke. So goes a dream!

My knowledge of wine in those days started and ended with jugs of Mt. Red. But a lot happened along the way—Zachys became Zachys, and here I am back in Los Angeles doing our first wine auction with my buddy, Steve Wallace, of the famous wine shop Wally's.

It seems like it has been a lot longer, but it was just two years ago that Zachys did its first solo auction in New York at Restaurant DANIEL. We had very specific goals—we wanted to bring the buzz, the drama, and the excitement back into the wine auction world. We wanted to pack the room with bidders. We wanted to create an event out of an auction and build from that.

Have we succeeded? Beyond our wildest dreams. Our sell thru rate ranges from 95% to 100%. We do more business, sell more lots, and have more people in the room than any other auction house in America.

And now, in partnership with Wally's, I am in Los Angeles.

Don Zacharia

Don Zacharia of Zachys and Steve Wallace of Wally's

The much anticipated Zachys with Wally's wine auction is finally here.

In a way, the roots of the Zachys and Wally's partnership originated well over a decade ago. My friendship with Don Zacharia began when Don's son-in-law, Andrew McMurray, did his internship at Wally's back in 1992. Andrew was young, bright, aggressive and green- and couldn't have made a better first impression.

Andrew's year-long tenure with Wally's was the catalyst for much more frequent communication between Don and me. We found that we shared a sense of business fundamentals, built on a philosophy of integrity, service and value. As we cultivated our relationship over the years that followed, we came to discover that we saw eye-to-eye (and, more importantly in our industry, nose-to-nose!) on a wide array of topics.

It was around two years ago that the concept of teaming up for a West Coast Zachys/Wally's wine auction first took root. This idea was lubricated by many bottles of wine and nurtured through meetings in different parts of the world until it evolved into a concrete venture.

I am proud that our unique bond has brought this project to fruition in the form of the Inaugural Los Angeles Auction. Additionally, I am thrilled that we have identified this opportunity to forge our friendship into an exciting business partnership, and look forward to continuing to work more closely with Don and the auction team. I can say with confidence, due to the talents shared by the staff at both Zachys and Wally's, that this venture is sure to be the first of many!

Steve Wallace

BORDEAUX: CLASSICS AND CONTEMPORARY

We are thrilled to lead off our Inaugural Los Angeles with this fine consignment of classic and contemporary Bordeaux. The older wines were bought by the consignor directly from a friend who had purchased the wines upon release and kept them in ideal storage conditions. The younger wines were purchased as futures and moved directly into temperature-controlled home storage. DB

RED BORDEAUXCHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC 1945

St Emilion, Premier Grand Cru Classe (a)

top shoulder, label torn and partially taped to bottle

1 1 bottle per lot $1000-1500

CHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC 1949

just below top shoulder, bin-soiled label

"...an unbelievably rich, sweet, expansive, full-bodied style of Cheval Blanc with enormous quantities of glycerin, fruit, alcohol, and extract. Although it has been drinkable for decades, it continues to offer that exotic, Asian spice, cedar, and huge, sweet fruit-scented nose...96." WA 2/96.

2 1 bottle per lot $800-1400

CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1953

Pauillac, Deuxieme Cru Classe

upper shoulder

"Another outstanding vintage, with characteristic cassis flavor and chocolate, currant and cedar nuances, as well as an herbaceous note that blends well with the lovely, sweet fruit flavor on the long finish...94." WS 5/91.

3 1 bottle per lot $500-900

CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1959

Pauillac, Deuxieme Cru Classe

just below top shoulder, excellent appearance

"I am always blown away by the 1959 Mouton, one of the greatest Moutons made in the last thirty-five years...Astonishingly young and unevolved, with a black/purple color, the wine exhibits a youthful nose of cassis, minerals, and new oak... powerful and super-extracted, with the fruit supported by high levels of tannin and some lusty quantities of alcohol...100." WA 10/94.

4 1 bottle per lot $850-1500

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD 1961

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classe

one just below top shoulder, one upper shoulder, one upper-mid shoulder, one mid shoulder, three bin-soiled labels

"...many 5-star notes - gentle, spicy, silky tannins, a certain delicacy and always great length...It had the sweetness of fully ripe grapes and alcohol, a mouthfilling flavour, very good tannins and acidity. Complete...★★★★★." MB 5/99.

5 4 bottles per lot $1200-2000

CHATEAU LATOUR 1961

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classe

upper shoulder

"...liquid perfection, exhibiting fragrant, cedary, truffle, leather, mineral, and sweet, jammy aromatics, full-bodied, voluptuous textures, exquisite purity and concentration, and a layered, highly-nuanced finish that represents the essence of compellingly great wine...An extraordinary wine, it is unquestionably one of the Bordeaux legends of the century!...100." WA 6/00.

6 2 bottles per lot $2000-3200

CHATEAU LATOUR 1961

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classe

mid shoulder

7 1 bottle per lot $1000-1700

CHATEAU MARGAUX 1961*Margaux, Premier Cru Classeupper shoulder, bin-soiled and nicked label*

"Another splendid '61...Most recently...the bouquet leapt out of the glass, sweet, brambly fruit, singed, fragrant; amazingly sweet, showing a little age but beautiful. It demonstrates that superb wines were made at Margaux long before the Mentzelopoulos purchase in 1977...★★★★★." MB 6/01.

8 1 bottle per lot $500-800

CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD 1961*Pauillac, Deuxieme Cru Classejust below top shoulder*

"Huge, cedary, cassis, lead pencil, menthol-like aromas soared from the glass. The black/purple color revealed no signs of lightening or amber at the edge...98." WA 10/94.

THE BEST OF BORDEAUX AND THE RHONE

This consignor's passion for the wines of Bordeaux and the Rhone Valley is unparalleled. In fact, he can barely get to his cellar through the many stacks of original wooden cases which block his way. Fifty thousand bottles make up this extraordinary cellar which is kept at perfect temperature and humidity year round.

The consignor purchases his wines only from the most reputable sources. All red Bordeaux and Rhone wines were purchased upon release from reliable retailers. The amazing collection of Chateau d'Yquem was sourced directly from France in the early 1980's, the majority of wines coming from the Maitre de Chai of Chateau d'Yquem, Pierre Meslier. DB

A FIRST-EVER LIBRARY RELEASE FROM BEL AIR'S MORAGA VINEYARDS

The following lots are being offered courtesy of Bel Air's Moraga Vineyards. The bottles were removed directly from Moraga's library reserves for this sale and this is the first ever offering of large formats of the 1990 and 1994 vintages along with a ten-year vertical (1990-1999).

The seeds of Moraga were planted in the late 1970s when Tom Jones decided to experiment with wine making at his 16-acre Bel Air property. In 1978, vines were planted in carefully selected locations at the estate and by the mid-1980s results were so successful that Steve Wallace of Wally's encouraged Tom to produce a commercial Cabernet blend. In 1989 the first official release of Moraga came to market.

Moraga's red wine is composed of approximately 80% Cabernet Sauvignon and 20% Merlot. It is aged for 20 months in French oak barrels and then an additional 12 months in bottle before release. The distinct microclimate and deep gravel beds at Moraga, coupled with the blending and vinification techniques employed by the winemakers, result in wines in a Bordeaux style but with very distinct character.

This is a unique opportunity to acquire rare large formats, as well as a ten-year retrospective vertical, directly from the cellars of Moraga Vineyards. MJ

"The most striking of our series of 18 flights, encompassing 165 different wines, was the tasting devoted to the so-called cult Cabernets... My three favorite wines were Cabernets from two of the Napa Valley's aristocrats, Harlan Estate and Araujo's Eisele Vineyard, and the interloper from the hills of Bel-Air, the 1994 Moraga... I'd never tasted Moraga before... But I was impressed by the wine... it had a lovely, caressing sort of effect on the palate. It was a neat, beautifully balanced, elegant sort of a wine whose flavor went on and on. Most impressive." Jancis Robinson, Los Angeles Times, 6/17/99.

THE EXTRAORDINARY COLLECTION OF MR. WILLIAM W. STUART FEATURING CLASSIC BORDEAUX PURCHASED FROM THE HENRY E. SINGLETON CELLAR

Woody Stuart's wine collection is one of the finest in Los Angeles. Stuart's love affair with great wine began in the late 1970's when he first experienced the top wines of Bordeaux. His interests expanded to Burgundy and in the mid-1980's he became a member of the Chevaliers du Tastevin. Through the Chevaliers Stuart made numerous wine friends and began collecting in earnest. As his favorite wines he cites First Growth Bordeaux and Chateau Leoville Las Cases, as well as the wines of the Domaine de la Romanee-Conti, Henri Mayer, and Gaja. He has personally visited many of the producers in his collection.

Much of the Bordeaux offered below was purchased by Woody Stuart at Zachys-Christie's sale of the Collection of Henry E. Singleton in Los Angeles in 2000, the most important single owner wine sale ever held on the West Coast. The Singleton Collection was amassed in a short period in the early 1970's and remained undisturbed for three decades in temperature-controlled cellars in the basement of the Singleton mansion in Los Angeles. Stuart has enjoyed these wines as much as any in his collection for their superb condition and drinkability. He is offering a portion of them along with the rest of his collection to consolidate his cellar prior to moving. DB

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD 1988*Pauillac, Premier Cru Classeinto neck"Broodingly backward and in need of considerable bottle age, the 1988 is a classic expression of Lafite. This deeply-colored wine exhibits the tell-tale Lafite bouquet of cedar, subtle herbs, dried pit fruits, minerals, and cassis. Extremely concentrated, with brilliantly focused flavors and huge tannins, this backward, yet impressively endowed Lafite-Rothschild may well turn out to be the wine of the vintage! RICHEBOURG DOMAINE DE LA ROMANEE CONTI 1999*Cote de Nuits, Grand Cru*

"Magnificent, the 1999 Richebourg has a saturated, dark ruby color. It explodes from the glass with loads of super-ripe, dark fruits, including blackberries, cassis, plums, and black cherries. This dense, plush, and broad wine has prodigious depth to its roasted red and black fruit-flavored personality. A myriad of spices can be found in its chewy-textured, full-bodied, highly concentrated, powerful character. Its extraordinarily long finish is dominated by fruit, yet copious quantities of sweet and supple tannin can be discerned... 94-97." WA 8/01.

A COMPLETE SET OF THE NINE ARIETTAS
BOTTLED IN MAGNUM

Arietta is a wine making venture created by partners John Kongsgaard and Fritz Hatton. In 1996, two exceptional vineyard blocks at the southern end of the Napa Valley were singled out for the project. The wine is handmade using traditional methods with grapes sourced from Lee Hudson's ranch in Napa/Carneros. John Kongsgaard and Lee Hudson had been working together since 1983, studying the combination of exposure, soil type, grape variety, clone, rootstock, cover crop, trellis, yield, and the countless other critical details of growing grapes at the highest level of quality.

Arietta is produced in 350-900 case quantities, and only 15 cases of magnums are produced in each vintage, offered in support of charitable causes.

Reviews are available by both Robert Parker and Steve Tanzer. All wines have achieved scores ranging from 90-96 points. This is the only complete set of Arietta magnums known to exist outside the winery.

Here is the summary with cépages for each wine:

Arietta 1997: 81% Cabernet Franc, 19% Merlot

Arietta Red Wine 1998: 60% Cabernet Franc, 40% Merlot

Arietta Merlot 1998: 100% Merlot

Arietta Red Wine 1999: 60% Cabernet Franc, 40% Merlot

Arietta 1999: 100% Merlot

Arietta H Block Hudson 2000: 50% Cabernet Franc, 50% Merlot

Arietta Variation One 2000: 70% Merlot, 30% Syrah

Arietta H Block Hudson 2001: 60% Merlot, 40% Cabernet Franc

"The Bordeaux-like, saturated dense ruby/purple color is followed by a tight-fisted nose and flavors of black fruits, underbrush, minerals, smoke, and new oak...This loaded effort should prove to be one of the longest-lived red Burgundies made in the last twenty years...96." WA 2/02.

"Crafted from yields below 30 h/h, the medium to dark ruby-colored 1997 Charmes-Chambertin displays candied red cherry and spicy aromas. On the palate, it is opulent, sexy, refined, and gorgeously velvety. Flavors reminiscent of cinnamon-laced, red cherry jam coat the palate, and linger for up to 30 seconds or more. This hedonistic wine will offer superb drinking over the next 6-10 years."

CHATEAUNEUF DU PAPE DEUX FRERESPIERRE USSEGLIO 2000Rhoneowc*

"...extremely full-bodied and strikingly pure with copious quantities of blackberry and cherry liquor intermixed with spice, and subtle pain grille. Enormously-endowed, with multiple flavor dimensions...94-97." WA 12/01.

603 6 bottles per lot $600-900

CHATEAUNEUF DU PAPE RESERVE LA VIEILLE JULIENNE 2000*Rhone6-pack owc*

"...This massively constituted, full-bodied effort possesses huge amounts of glycerin in addition to a staggeringly concentrated, multilayered attack and mid-palate. The sumptuous finish lasts for nearly a minute. The purity, seamlessness, and overall symmetry are spectacular in this wine... a candidate for wine of the vintage...98-100." WA 12/01.

604 6 bottles per lot $750-1000

CHATEAUNEUF DU PAPE V.V. LA VIEILLE JULIENNE 2000*Rhone6-pack owc*

"...offers the essence of kirsch liqueur intermixed with licorice, smoke, and minerals. It possesses a striking bouquet, but the wine is closed. There is great precision, stunning purity, concentration, and length...should prove to be a future legend...96-99." WA 12/01.

605 6 bottles per lot $600-900

ERMITAGE L'ERMITE CHAPOUTIER 2000*Rhone*

"...reveals notes of liquid minerals intermixed with kirsch liqueur and blackberries... appears to be a hypothetical blend of Bordeaux's Lafleur and Ausone... 2000 flirts with perfection. A provocative wine with great minerality, finesse, and delin-eation, it blew me away when I tasted it from bottle...99+." WA 6/03.

"The utterly perfect, dense ruby/purple-colored 1996 Barbaresco Asili (Red Label Riserva) is a heroic offering brilliantly displaying both power and elegance. The bouquet develops incrementally, offering up aromas of black raspberries, cherries, cigar box, licorice, and leather. The wine impresses with its nuances as well as its extraordinarily rich, dense mid-palate, and a finish that lasts nearly a minute. There is huge tannin, but equally massive concentration, extract, and overall harmony...98." WA 6/01.

"What makes Screaming Eagle such an extraordinary wine is its remarkably sweet, lavishly rich, opulently-textured, super-extracted black currant and black cherry fruitiness. Moreover, they are admirably pure, layered, velvety, and accessible. As delicious as these wines are young, they should age for 20 or more years, because of their extraordinary equilibrium...94." COAST COLLECTION

The following collection comes courtesy of an impassioned collector who is a tremendous supporter of the California wine industry and the many charities which the industry has helped. This consignor counts among his closest friends many of California's most distinguished winemakers and his collection reflects these connections. Included in this extensive offering is an extremely rare 3L of 1992 Screaming Eagle - one of only three bottles in existence.

DOMINUS ESTATE 1983*Napa Valleyowc*

"Only 2,100 cases were produced of the debut vintage of Dominus...It gives every sign of shedding its tannins and having the requisite extraction of fruit and concentration for future harmony. It is unquestionably among the finest 1983 California Cabernet Sauvignon-based wines." WA 8/92.

830 6 bottles per lot $240-350

DOMINUS ESTATE 1984*Napa Valleyall in 6-pack owc*

"I have been fooled by this wine in blind tastings, mistaking it for a top Pomerol, although there is an insignificant percentage of Merlot in the blend...Full-bodied, opulent, and soft, this fleshy wine appears to have reached an attractive plateau of maturity; it should easily last for another 10-15+ years." WA 6/94.

831 6 bottles per lot $300-450

832 12 bottles per lot $600-900

DOMINUS ESTATE 1985*Napa Valley*

"... stands out for its smoky, ripe cassis, earthy nose, sweet, full-bodied, concentrated flavors, and opulently long, chewy finish...This bottling exhibited the plush, velvety texture that proprietor Christian Moueix achieves in top Pomerol vintages. The 1985 Dominus should continue to drink well for another 15-20 years." WA 4/95.

833 6 bottles per lot $320-450

DOMINUS ESTATE 1987*Napa Valleybottom neck*

"...one of the great wines of the vintage in a year when a handful of California producers made profound Cabernets...displays a rich ruby color and an intensely spicy, fragrant nose of toasty vanillin oak, cassis, and cedar. In the mouth, this medium to full-bodied wine displays considerable tannins, fine integrated acidity, and an opulent, rich, spicy finish...96." WA 10/93.

834 6 bottles per lot $400-600

DOMINUS ESTATE 1992*Napa Valleyowc*

"...an opulent, opaquely concentrated wine with great ripeness of fruit, and a huge nose of earth, black-cherries, mocha, and herbs. Full-bodied, with a layered, multidimensional personality, adequate acidity, and a super finish...97." WA 6/95.

835 6 bottles per lot $450-600

DOMINUS ESTATE 1994*Napa Valleyowc*

"Christian Moueix and his talented winemaking team continue to rewrite the definition of a Napa Valley reference point wine... strikingly thick, compellingly rich wine with the texture of a great Pomerol... has the potential to last for 30+ years...99." WA 12/97.

"The 1995 Dominus (6,000 cases produced from a blend of 80% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Cabernet Franc, 6% Petit Verdot, and 4% Merlot) is a ripe, plummy, supple, expansively-flavored wine with copious quantities of black currant fruit. Full-bodied and low in acidity, it possesses exceptional concentration and purity...93." WA 12/97.

"It is dense, opulent, and nearly viscous with extraordinary purity and concentration. It comes across as a New World version of perhaps Domaine de la Romanee-Conti's La Tache or Richebourg, or a Claude Dugat or Dugat-Py grand cru. It is an awesome effort that falls just short of perfection...98." WA 8/02.

Pauillac, Premier Cru Classe

one top shoulder, one just below top shoulder, one upper shoulder, one slightly stained label, one faded label, lightly corroded capsules

"One of the best-ever Lafites...The extraordinary ability to exude not only an immediate cedary perfume but, very much a Lafite specialty, the way it opens up further avenues of fragrance and subtle by-paths, lingering in the mouth. Each time you pick up your glass you notice another facet of scent and taste. It also happens to be a good drink, still a perfect beverage...★★★★★." MB 12/00.

967 3 bottles per lot $2400-3500

CHATEAU MARGAUX 1959

Margaux, Premier Cru Classe

upper-mid shoulder

"Superbly balanced, with lovely, elegant fruit flavors. Quite succulent in style. Medium ruby-garnet, with an elegant, earthy strawberry aroma, balanced fruit and medium tannins.—1959 Bordeaux horizontal...93." WS 10/90.

MARCASSIN

"Those readers who continue to believe that only the Cote d'Or can produce world-class Chardonnays should consider the following. In a recent blind tasting that included Marcassin's 1992 Upper Barn Chardonnay, and several great vintages of Montrachet, Chevalier-Montrachet, and Batard-Montrachet from Domaine Leflaive, Michel Niellon, and Louis Latour, France's finest taster, Michel Bettane, confirmed what I had already come to believe - Marcassin is producing wines that are superior to France's grands crus - hard to believe, but true!" WA 6/95.

MARCASSIN PINOT NOIR
MARCASSIN VINEYARD 1996

In order to get a snapshot of what this wine is really about is to recognize that it is reminiscent of the finest grand crus I have tasted from such sites as Clos de la Roche and Clos St.-Denis. It shares an extraordinary minerality with fabulously concentrated plum, black cherry, blueberry/blackberry characteristics. It is full-bodied, dense, concentrated and alcoholic...95." WA 1/00.

"The 1998 Pinot Noir Marcassin Vineyard is similar to a hypothetical blend of a grand cru Musigny and a grand cru such as Clos de la Roche. This is an extraordinary accomplishment. This firmly structured, precise offering exhibits notes of figs, plum liqueur, black cherries, wet stones, smoked duck, and gorgeous red and black fruits. It is a very Burgundian, gamy, earthy effort with incredibly sweet fruit...98." WA 8/02.

"The 1996 Pingus is an astonishing wine that continues to put on weight and add more nuances to its multidimensional personality. The explosive aromatics consist of smoke, jammy blackberry and currant fruit, incense, licorice, cedar, and pain grille. Massive in the mouth, with a sumptuous texture, immense body, high levels of glycerin, and a multilayered mid-palate, this spectacular wine is evolved and accessible...96." WA 4/99.

OUTSTANDING JAYER, LEROY, DRC, AND YQUEM

The following lots come from the cellar of a West Coast collector with a taste for the finest, especially when it comes to Burgundy. All lots were purchased on release and stored in an ideal home cellar. The bottles are all of remarkably good appearance for age.

The highlights here are too many to list, but for starters a case of Mazis Chambertin Hospices de Beaune Cuvee Madeleine Collignon Leroy 1985, a parcel of Cros Parantoux Henri Mayer 1985, and ten bottles of Clos de la Roche Vieilles Vignes Ponsot 1985. The consignor wishes to share part of his collection with fellow wine enthusiasts.

MAGNIFICENT 18TH, 19TH AND 20TH CENTURY RARITIES FROM THE COLLECTION OF GRAEME REVELLRemoved From An Ideal Temperature Controlled Home Cellar

There are great parallels between Graeme Revell's life story and his wine collection: both are departures from the conventional.

Graeme Revell is an acclaimed major motion picture composer. Revell came to Hollywood by way of a classical training in piano and French horn, a University of Auckland, NZ, degree in developmental economics, a serious stint at a psychiatric hospital and a long European run with his industrial rock band, SPK. His first job was scoring the music to Nicole Kidman's breakthrough thriller-at-sea, Dead Calm (1989). Revell's long list of film credits now include more drama/thriller hits such as The Crow, Blow, The Saint, The Negotiator, Lara-Croft: Tomb Raider, and a bunch of scary films including The Bride of Chucky and Freddy vs. Jason. Revell most recently scored this summer's blockbuster indie thriller Open Water. I asked Graeme why so many of his films are nail-biters and while he's not entirely sure, he did comment, "when you start off in one genre, it's hard to shake."

Can the same be said about wine collecting?

Graeme's "light bulb" wine moment came in 1990 while working on a film with an American crew in Australia. He saw a bottle of 1968 Penfold's Grange on a restaurant list and decided to introduce the young Americans to a great bottle of Australian wine. Graeme was curious what an older wine from the country's top producer would taste like; it was the first time he had a "really good wine". That bottle of Grange ignited a curiosity about wine extending far beyond his palate. The experience explains his continued passion for Grange. (See lot 1450), Revell's ultimate love song to the wine.)

As his music career grew busier, Revell found himself in London, working on The Saint (1997), with digs around the corner from Christie's South Kensington salerooms. Revell spent his free time exploring the pre-sale exhibitions and flipping through pages of all categories of auction catalogues. Graeme developed a fanatical (his word) interest in almost every type of collectible, and found the South Kensington wine auctions particularly appealing. Revell soon discovered that the better sales, with wines that really spiked his interest, were held at Christie's King Street location. He started to read, taste and buy. During his work on The Saint, Revell bought 500 bottles, and found that he preferred Bordeaux, old Bordeaux in particular, which provided an affordable and convivial collecting category.

Revell's other collecting interests, rare books and manuscripts and exceptional motorcars, are not quite as affordable or convivial. Revell owns a 1st edition Copernicus De Revolutionibus (1543) and each of Galileo's famous books Dialogo (1632) and Discorsi, (1638). With regard to motorcars, Revell has bought and sold a fair number, collecting always with an eye to a car as a pivotal design statement, an object that propels the art of the motorcar further forward. Revell has a very rare 1953 Ferrari and was looking closely at another unique bodied 1952 Ferrari at this past summer's Pebble Beach Concourse d'Elegance auctions.

Revell sees each bottle of older wine as a tangible piece of history, documenting a place in time. Revell loves thinking about 1784 Lafite. A wine made, he reminds us, before Washington was president (1789), the grapes were in the ground when the British finally gave up on America (1783). For his father's 80th birthday, Revell opened a magnum of 1864 Lafite for a neophyte group of friends. He smiles as he recalls, "the delight on their faces was magic." When asked what Revell himself thought of the wine, he merely breathes a pleasure-soaked sigh. No doubt still thinking about that moment, he starts, "if it was just a matter of history..." and trails off, back to his memory of the wine.

Another favorite vintage is 1895. Revell bought and opened quite a few bottles with film industry colleagues. Whether they were wine drinkers or not, Revell wanted to share the experience of a wine that was made the same year the first motion picture was created in France. For Revell, the ability to make history come alive by pulling a cork is a powerful, mysterious and romantic notion – and a wonderfully old fashioned type of wine collecting.

Although older bottles provide the fascinating history that guides much of Revell's collecting, the creation of horizontal mini-collections also piqued Revell's interest. To have the opportunity to breathe and taste the annual development of the fruit from a single property is always an exciting experience. Revell's diligent and thoughtful collecting of these horizontals provided him with the thrill of the hunt. Horizontal tastings speak to the idea of style. Can you sense when a great wine property reaches its apex, changes its course, loses its luster? Each of the horizontals that Revell built offers a superb opportunity to explore these questions.

Provenance is everything to Revell, who taught himself to read each word in every wine auction catalogue to find the very best example of any given wine. He would then buy another example of a wine, perhaps with lesser provenance or condition, hoping to get a "deal." It was the "lesser bottles" that he would drink, keeping the greatest prizes for this collection. He considers himself extremely lucky in experiencing an approximately 10% failure rate in the bottles consumed from his collection, due to either spoilage or cork taint. More likely, Revell just isn't giving himself the credit for his astute purchases, made after a tremendous amount of study. In that 10% number, Graeme doesn't include the share of "thin experiences" that go with the territory, but as he was buying from great old collections, the pulling of each cork was a very special experience.

Revell is selling his great collection of rare and historic wines because he's sold his house in preparation for building a home in Malibu, and simply cannot stand the idea of placing his bottles in someone else's temporary charge. Revell figures it may be four years before he's ready to begin rebuilding his wine collection, and sees himself collecting the same kind of wines. Just like his experience in movies: "when you start off in one genre, it's hard to shake."
